

This distribution guide is intended to help care providers in different care settings educate their patients with regards to discrimination in health care, particularly against minority groups. Patients have a right to care that is safe regardless of their race, ethnicity, gender, sexual identity or socioeconomic status.

customer advocacy department as a resource.

- Post the infographic in waiting rooms and in patient recovery rooms.
- Provide tabletop versions of the infographic as reading material in waiting rooms.
- Add the infographic to admission packets.
- Include the infographic or video in any patient newsletters or other external promotional materials.
- Share the infographic and video at safety meetings and with your organization's board of directors and other leadership groups.
- Play the video in waiting rooms or run the video on patient televisions in their rooms.
- Provide the infographic at any welcome desk for patient visitors.

- Post the infographic in waiting rooms and other entryways.
- Add the infographic to admission packets.
- Include the infographic or video in any newsletters or other external promotional materials.
- Share the infographic and video at safety meetings and with your organization's board of directors and other leadership groups.
- Play the video in communal living areas.
- Provide the infographic at any welcome desk for visitors.

- Post the infographic in waiting rooms and other entryways.
- Add the infographic to admission packets.
- Include the infographic or video in any newsletters or other external promotional materials.
- Share the infographic and video at safety meetings and with your organization's board of directors and other leadership groups.
- Play the video in communal living areas.
- Provide the infographic at any welcome desk for visitors.

- Post the infographic on your website

-